1969 ACTIVITIES IN THE
NATIONAL CAPITAL PARKS

... So That All May Find Enjoyment

You, your family and friends are invited to visit the parks of the Nation's Capital and to participate in the many programs and activities planned for you.

Following is a list of events scheduled for areas of the National Capital Region, National Park Service, U.S. Department of the Interior from April through November. The hours shown are contingent upon availability of funds and staff.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR—The Nation's principal natural resource agency—has a special obligation to assure that our expendable resources are conserved, that our renewable resources are managed to produce optimum benefits, and that all resources contribute to the progress and prosperity of the United States, now and in the future.

Information

Consult Chronological Listing for Further Information on Programs

All interpretive events in this program are conducted by Park Historians, Naturalists, and Park Guides who provide interpretation and answer questions. These activities are free except for transportation on barge trips.

Public transportation is available to most meeting places. Transportation companies are pleased to provide information about bus routes and schedules.

Antietam National Battlefield Site and Cemetery: This site of a strategic battle of the Civil War lies north and east of Sharpsburg, Md. It can be reached via State Routes 34 and 65 from U.S. 40 and 40A. A visitor center is open from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Telephone: 301-432-5124. Fishing and picnicking are permitted. Campfire programs are given on Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. from Memorial Day through Labor Day at Antietam Creek Campground on the C. & O. Canal, about 5 miles from the battlefield. The campground can be reached via Harpers Ferry Road from Sharpsburg, Md.

Battleground National Cemetery: 6625 Georgia Avenue NW. The cemetery was established in 1864 after the Confederate attack on Washington, culminating in the Battle of Fort Stevens. Telephone: 381-7282.

Carter Barron Amphitheatre: Outdoor theater in Rock Creek Park adjacent to 16th Street and Colorado Avenue NW., can be reached via 14th and 16th St. bus lines. Special buses available after each performance. Parking space is provided. Programs from early June through Labor Day feature musicals, operettas, symphony concerts, folk music, ballet, and variety shows with outstanding guest artists. Schedule available about May 1. Tickets are on sale at Carter Barron Amphitheatre Box Office, Rock Creek Park; and at the Super Music City Box Office, 1344 F St. NW., Washington, D.C. Telephone: 882-2620 or 783-2300.

Catoctin Mountain Park: This 5,765-acre park, on the easternmost ridge of Maryland's Appalachian Province, is 65 miles northwest of Washington, D.C., on State Route 77, 3 miles west of Thurmont, Md. Telephone: 301-824-2022.

Chesapeake and Ohio Canal: This 140-year old waterway extends 185 miles from Georgetown, D.C., to Cumberland, Md. The short narrow levels of the canal in Georgetown afford picturesque views. Upstream, the canal traverses the Potomac River floodplain which is ideally suited for nature study. The area is accessible all year via the towpath. Canoeing, boating, camping, hiking, fishing, picnicking, and ice skating are among the recreational facilities you may enjoy. Park Naturalists and Historians conduct guided trips along the towpath and tours aboard oldtime mule-drawn barges (see Barge Trips). Telephone: 381-7343 or 381-7417.

Campfire programs are held each Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. from Memorial Day through Labor Day at the North Branch picnic area on the C. & O. Canal, reached by Route 51 from Cumberland, Md. (see also Antietam.)

Custis-Lee Mansion, "Arlington House": This memorial to Robert E. Lee, located in Arlington National Cemetery, is reached from Washington by crossing Arlington Memorial Bridge. The Mansion is open daily 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. (9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., winter months). Land and Water Conservation Fund Fee for persons 16 and over, 50 cents; or possession of Golden Eagle Passport. Free printed and rental audio self-guiding tours available. Short film program presented intermittently throughout the day. Telephone: 381-7417 or 525-2700, ext. 66146.

Dumbarton Oaks Park: In Georgetown, 27 acres of wooded land within a stream valley, with interesting plant and bird life. Entrance is from Lovers Lane on R Street near Avon Place. Bird and flower walks in April and May are shown in chronological listing. Open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. from early spring to late fall. Telephone: 381-7282.

Ford's Theatre and House Where Lincoln Died: Ford's Theatre, 511 10th Street NW., is restored as it appeared when Lincoln was assassinated there on April 14, 1865. The House Where Lincoln Died, across the street at 516 10th Street NW., preserves the scene of Lincoln's last hours. The theatre, the House Where Lincoln Died, and the Lincoln Museum—located in the basement of Ford's Theatre—all help the visitor to better understand the life and times of Abraham Lincoln. Plays are presented during the winter months. Lincoln Museum, Ford's Theatre, and House Where Lincoln Died are open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. For group arrangements, call 381-7256. Admission fee temporarily suspended.

Fort Dupont Park: This 400-acre forested parkland, bounded by Minnesota, Massachusetts, and Alabama Avenues SE., is ideal for nature study, hiking, bicycling, and relaxation. The park also contains Fort Dupont (a Civil War fortification), picnic area, an 18-hole golf course, and other recreational features. Telephone: 381-7401. Those desiring picnic reservations should call 629-7254.

Fort Washington, Maryland: Located on the Potomac River 6 miles south of Washington, this 341-acre park features the fortification which guarded the river approach to the Nation's Capital for over a century. The park, open from 7:30 a.m. to dark, may be reached via Maryland Route 210 (Indian Head Highway). Turn right onto Fort Washington Road about 4½ miles below Capital Beltway (I-495) and continue 4 miles to park entrance. There is a museum at the drawbridge entrance to the fort. Telephone: 381-7401 or 292-2112.

Glover-Archbold Park: You may enjoy the interesting natural history in this "miniature wilderness" on a walk along the nature trail. It is located at Reservoir Road and 44th St. NW. Telephone: 381-7282.

Grant Memorial: The memorial is located on 1st Street west of the Capitol. This bronze statue by Henry M. Shrady symbolizes General Grant guarding the Capitol that he so nobly helped to save.

Great Falls, Maryland and Virginia: These parks are reached respectively from exits 15 and 13 from the Capital Beltway (I-495), which bridges the Potomac River. Along the Maryland shore is the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. The Great Falls Tavern, a canal feature dating from 1830, houses the C. & O. Canal Museum of history and natural history exhibits. Historic film shown daily every hour on the hour. The Great Falls are seen from an overlook about a half-mile walk from the tavern. Conducted walks June, July, and August, 7 days a week, 10 a.m., 2 p.m., and 4 p.m. Trailside exhibit open May 30 through Labor Day. The museum is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to dark.

In the 800-acre park at Great Falls, Va., are remnants of a skirting canal built by the Potowmack Company dating from 1785. George Washington and other famous Americans were associated with the project. The park is open from 8 a.m. to dark. A parking fee of 50 cents per car is collected. Visitor center exhibits interpret the area. Conducted nature walks June, July and August, 7 days a week, 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. Nature hikes of 5-mile length on Saturdays at 9 a.m. Telephone: Great Falls, Md., 381-7343; Great Falls, Virginia, 381-7417.

Information Kiosks: The National Park Service maintains seven information booths to assist visitors by giving general information about Washington and its vicinity. The kiosk located on the edge of the Washington Monument parking lot is open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. The remaining six are open daily 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. from June 1 to September 1, and intermittently from April 1 to June 1, and from September 1 to November 1. These six are located as follows: On the Ellipse; at the Lincoln Memorial; on the Washington Monument grounds along 15th Street; on the Mall in front of the Smithsonian Museum of Natural History; at the Grant Memorial at the east end of the Mall; and at the Jefferson Memorial.

Jefferson Memorial: Located on the south shore of the Tidal Basin. Memorial to the third President, Thomas Jefferson—author of the Declaration of Independence and the Virginia Statute of Religious Freedom, and founder of the University of Virginia. Open daily from 8 a.m. to midnight except Christmas Day. Free guided tours of the memorial are conducted by National Park Service Guides during the summer months. These tours, about 15 minutes in length, are given hourly from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. For group arrangements, call 381-7230. No admission fee.

Kenilworth Aquatic Gardens: Anacostia Avenue and Ponds St. NE. (near Kenilworth and Eastern Avenues). Here in verdant riverside pools grow waterlilies, lotuses, and many other aquatic plants. Native wildflowers, birds, and aquatic animals add variety and interest to the quiet pools and marshy fringe. Yellow irises begin their colorful display by mid-May followed by the hardy waterlilies blooming in early June. From mid-July until October, lotuses and tropical waterlilies make a show with their varied colors. The gardens are at their best in the morning. Open 7:30 a.m. to dark. Guided walks. Telephone: 381-7401.

Lincoln Memorial: Located at the west end of the Mall. The memorial honors the virtues of tolerance, honesty, and constancy in the human spirit, which were so well exhibited by the Civil War President—Abraham Lincoln. The memorial is open from 8 a.m. to midnight daily. Fifteen-minute free tours are conducted by Park Service Guides hourly from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. during the summer. For group arrangements, call 381-7309. No admission fee.

The Mall: In his design of the Federal City, Major Pierre Charles L'Enfant envisioned the Mall as a central theme—a beautiful, wide, open area within the very heart of a great city, to be reclaimed from the marshland of Tiber Creek. On L'Enfant's map, the Mall terminated about 125 yards west of the Washington Monument. Since the filling in of more ground, and the erection of the Lincoln Memorial, the Mall has generally been viewed as extending from First Street at the foot of the Capitol grounds to the Lincoln Memorial. Telephone: 381-7315.

Mall Shuttle Service.—There are two tours—one around the West Mall, making stops at the Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials and the White House, and the other around the East Mall, stopping at the Smithsonian Institution, the Capitol area, and the Museum of Natural History. Both tours start at the Washington Monument. The fare for each tour is 50¢ for persons 12 and above and 30¢ for children 2 through 11. (This fare includes unlimited reboarding privileges.)

Service began March 17 and will continue daily throughout the year, except Christmas Day. Hours of operations are 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., from April 15 through Labor Day; and 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. the remainder of the year. Because of limited parking on the Mall, visitors are advised to take public transportation to a Tourmobile stop on the Mall.

Meridian Hill Park: This Italian Renaissance garden with cascades, pools, and sculptured figures is bordered by 15th, 16th, Euclid and W Streets NW. For information on recreational and cultural activities in the park call National Capital Region Information, 381-7396, and/or D.C. Recreation Department Information, 629-7226.

Montrose Park: R Street and Avon Place NW. Croquet, basketball, tennis, nursery playground, and picnicking facilities. Telephone: 381-7282.

Old Stone House: This pre-Revolutionary structure in the heart of Georgetown is located at 3051 M Street NW. Personnel on duty describe the house and tell of its history which began in 1765. Tours are conducted continuously throughout the day and special tours for organized groups may be arranged. The house is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, July and August; Wednesday through Sunday the rest of the year. No fee. Telephone: 381-7282 or 381-7283.

Oxon Hill Children's Farm: Located just west of Indian Head Highway on Oxon Hill Road in Oxon Hill, Md., the farm offers visitors an opportunity to see and learn about life on a typical and traditional small farm.

The hay barn, equipment shed, and work room are open; and tools, farm equipment, and machinery are displayed. In the stables and surrounding pens and pastures are examples of most every common farm animal, from chickens to dairy cows. Various farm crops may also be seen in season. Personnel are on duty to explain the interesting features and exhibits and answer questions.

Activities.—Depending on the season and weather, the normal daily activities on the farm may include the operation of a horse team for plowing, cultivating, or hauling; feeding of livestock; milking; etc. All activities are performed as demonstrations. Call for specific information. Guided tour and demonstration are available for groups by appointment. Nature hikes are conducted through the surrounding fields, orchard, and woodland each Sunday afternoon from April through October. Picnic facilities are available.

Visiting Hours.—Daily, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays October through May 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; June through September 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Telephone: 381-7401 or 839-1177.

Pierce Mill: This historic mill in Rock Creek Park, at Beach Drive and Park Road, is an interesting example of early 19th-century grist mills. Tours are conducted throughout the day, and special tours for organized groups may be arranged. The mill is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, July and August; Wednesday through Sunday the rest of the year. No fee. Telephone: 381-7282 or 381-7284.

Prince William Forest Park, Triangle, Virginia: Located near Quantico, Va., 32 miles south of Washington via Interstate 95 or U.S. 1, this park has facilities for camping, picnicking, nature study, and hiking. Campfire programs and naturalist-conducted walks May through September are shown in chronological listing. Telephone 703-875-2470.

Rock Creek Nature Center: On Glover Road in Rock Creek Park, south of intersection of Military Road and Oregon Avenue NW. This educational development includes a colorful exhibit hall, assembly room and planetarium. Although designed primarily for children, adults also find the exhibits and activities interesting and enjoyable. Park Naturalists are on duty to answer questions and conduct the programs. Admission is free.

Guide Yourself.—Electric quiz games, other unique “work-it-yourself” devices, and live specimens, including an observation beehive, vividly present the story of nature in Rock Creek Park. Outdoors, visitors will find two self-guiding nature trails.

Programs.—Nature programs, featuring scheduled films, talks, and demonstrations, are presented in the assembly room every Saturday and Sunday. Planetarium programs vividly simulate the Washington sky through the use of a special projector and overhead projection dome. Demonstrations are given for groups by appointment during the morning and early afternoon Monday through Friday, and to the general public every weekend and Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons. Consult the current quarterly Nature Center schedule for specific information.

Visiting Hours.—Monday through Saturday, 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sundays, March through November, 12 noon to 6 p.m.; December through February, 12 noon to 5 p.m. Telephone: 381-7367.

Nature Walks of 45-minute duration are conducted by Park Naturalists from the Rock Creek Nature Center at 1 p.m. on Saturday and 3 p.m. on Sunday the year around. Walks conducted by Park Naturalists, about two hours in length, are also scheduled on Sunday mornings during June, July, and August in various parts of the park. Consult the chronological listing for dates and meeting places for these events as well as for walks involving specialized nature study conducted by guest leaders.

Sylvan Theater: This is an outdoor amphitheater on the Washington Monument grounds. The schedules of Shakespeare plays and District of Columbia Recreation Department programs are not available at this time. Watch newspapers for specific dates. Telephone: 381-7333.

Theodore Roosevelt Island: The island and impressive memorial honor the 26th U.S. President, an ardent conservationist. Accessible by pedestrian causeway from parking lot on George Washington Memorial Parkway north of Arlington Memorial Bridge. Open 9:30 a.m. to dark. Conducted walks at 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. daily. Telephone: 381-7417.

U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial ("Iwo Jima Memorial"): On Arlington Ridge Road near Arlington National Cemetery. Sunset reviews by Marines, Tuesday evenings 7:30 p.m., June through August. Special program November 10, 11 a.m. Telephone: 381-7417.

Washington Monument: This dominant landmark on the skyline of Washington, D.C. at the west side of the Mall is a fitting memorial to the Father of Our Country—who made so great a contribution to the development of our Nation. The Monument, constructed between 1848 and 1884, was the first major presidential memorial built in the city. It is open daily from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m., from March 20 through Labor Day, and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the remainder of the year except Christmas Day. Elevator charge of 10 cents for all persons 16 years of age or over. Telephone: 381-7273.

Watergate Theater: This outdoor theater is located on the Potomac River near the Lincoln Memorial, at the D.C. end of Arlington Memorial Bridge. Parking is available on nearby streets and park drives. Admission to concerts on Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings during June, July, and August is free. Telephone: 381-7333.

White House: The best-known residential address in the Nation—1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW. Visitors may join a public tour at the East Gate of the White House Grounds, Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to Noon. Saturday hours may be extended to 2 p.m. during the summer. No admission fee. For information call 381-7315.

President's Cup Regatta. Powerboat races will be held in June and sailboat races in September on the Potomac River off Hains Point and at the Washington Sailing Marina south of the National Airport, respectively. Watch newspapers or call 381-7396.

Swimming: Public swimming pools are located at Anacostia Park, between the Sousa and Anacostia Bridges SW.; Banneker Recreation Center, 2500 Georgia Avenue NW.; Douglass Community Center, 19th Street and Stanton Terrace SE.; Randall Recreation Center, South Capitol Street between G and K Streets SW.; Kelly-Miller Recreation Center, 49th and 50th Streets north of Washington Place NE.; Eckington Recreation Center, Lincoln Road, 2d, R and T Streets NE.; East Potomac Park; Fort Stanton Park, 18th and Erie Streets SE.; Francis Recreation Center, 26th and N Streets NW.; Oxon Run Recreation Center, 6th Street and Mississippi Avenue SE.; Takoma Recreation Center, 4th and Van Buren Streets NW. Call 629-7254 for information about rates and hours.

Summer in the Parks: Begun in 1968 by the National Park Service, this is a city-wide program of daily activities designed for persons of all ages. Events vary from "surprise trips" which take neighborhood youngsters on excursions to outlying parks to noontime band concerts held in downtown parks.

Individual programs include those held for particular communities and special events open to the general public, such as bicycle races, jousting matches, fashion shows and performances featuring top-name entertainers. For more information about Summer in the Parks and its schedule of events, telephone 381-7666.

Tennis: Permits for free courts can be secured from District of Columbia Recreation Department, 3149 16th Street NW. Telephone: 629-7254. Pay courts in East Potomac Park and Rock Creek Park at 16th and Kennedy Streets NW., and on Park Road near Beach Drive NW., operated by Government Services, Inc. Telephone: FEderal 7-8080. Both hard-surfaced and clay courts are available.

Torchlight Tattoos. These popular military pageants presented in past years at the Jefferson Memorial will be held at another location this year. Information not available at this printing. Check the newspapers, or telephone 381-7333.
